• are required to promptly share disclosures of potential Prohibited Conduct with the Title IX Office
• includes: faculty members, coaches, deans, UGA’s, supervisors, etc.

Community members who have experienced Prohibited Conduct may report directly to the Title IX Office
• friends or associates may also disclose potential Prohibited Conduct

When a Title IX Coordinator receives a report, they respond to the complainant via email including:
• an invitation to meet with a Title IX Coordinator
• availability of Supportive Measures
• information on:
  o Rights
  o Resources
  o Reporting and Resolution Options

Meetings are voluntary and a support person is welcome to attend
The Coordinator meets with the Complainant to:
• understand the nature and circumstances of the report
• discuss Supportive Measures
• describe the Informal and Formal Resolution Processes
• review the policy

The Title IX Coordinator will consider:
• the nature of the report
• the safety of the individual and the community
• and the Complainant’s expressed preference for resolution

The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for determining:
• whether the reported conduct falls within the scope of the Sexual Misconduct Policy or whether the reported conduct falls within Title IX jurisdiction as defined by the Title IX regulations
